24-hour mini-retreat

“Heartwork from any location”

The upcoming "24-Hour Mini-Retreat" is a rare opportunity to experience the dynamic inner-work that Heartwork offers, with a minimal expenditure of time and money - AND you can do it from your own home!!!

Heartwork is a way of being in the world, not just something you do when you can find the time to get away from your life! It is about learning how to live one's life in a more open, loving, appreciative way. So, while you may not be able to participate in ALL the experiences or ALL the group discussions via conference call, you can definitely participate in the retreat even, and perhaps especially, in the midst of activities in the world.

CREATING HEALING RELATIONSHIPS

March 19—March 20
9pm-9pm (eastern)

This mini-retreat is an opportunity to look together at the possibilities that exist within relationship for personal growth and ever-deepening intimacy with another human being. Through brief talks, experiential exercises, and group discussions, we will explore what creates and sustains intimacy in relationships, how it is lost, and how it can be renewed. You will learn the “Relationship Transformers” - tools that are GUARANTEED (if both parties love each other and are willing to do their own work, in and through the relationship) not only to take a relationship through any possible difficulty, but to transform the very nature of the relationship itself and create the most loving, intimate relationship one has known. The mini-retreat is open to singles as well as those in relationships.

Words from Attendees:

The "veil" was lifted from my eyes, I was actually experiencing "cloudy" vision and after moving in deeply and seeing what was causing my discomfort my eye sight actually became clearer and the world looked much brighter/lighter. - Dana
